American & Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St., BOSTON.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
Testimonials.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
[From the present Commissioner.]
"August 1, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

[From the Jeffersonian.]

Lucy Stone and the Rights of Women vindicated.

To the Editor of the Jeffersonian:

SIR:—Do you prefer justice to injustice? If you do, will you please correct certain unjust impressions which your notice of Lucy Stone's lecture, gives. It is quite a mistake that Mr. Blackwell was left at home to tend a baby while his wife went abroad to lecture. They have no child; and business calling him to the West, she took the opportunity to advance the cause which is so near to her heart,—and for which no one else has ever been able to do half as much. As to the Bloomer dress which she adopted for "unanswerable reasons," she still wears it, more than half of the time; always at her work at home, or when roaming fields and woods for enjoyment. To gratify the taste of many of her friends, who think the Bloomer decidedly ugly, (as it is) she wears, in travelling and lecturing, a dress which is much shorter than fashion requires, but still not ungraceful. No doubt the Bloomer dress is better for health and comfort than any other, but it lacks the quality of grace,—which all persons, both men and women, are somewhat bound to consult. As this deference to taste, on Lucy's part, was yielded before her marriage; and as in the Blackwell family there are two ladies who have studied medicine, and two brothers who have married,—one Antoinette Brown, and the other Lucy Stone,—there is little propriety in the newspapers saying that "no longer dress was put on to get a husband! In declining to resign her own name of Lucy Stone, she has her husband's full approval, he says, as "he would not like to give up his, and 'tis a poor rule that won't work both ways." This, too, is a matter of taste, and if the parties are agreed, the world need not be troubled. Few ladies will care to imitate her in this, however much they hold precious the great essential parts of the Reform which Mrs. Stone advocates. And yet if the custom were entirely new, would there not be one universal rebellion, on the part of all women, at this losing one's name, when they get a husband? Perhaps when wise women have won a name, worth keeping, there will then be many instances of a wish to retain it! And this brings me to the point to which I wish to direct your attention, and which I hope will modify the tone of your next notice of Lucy Stone.

It is, that if you knew the history of Lucy Stone, whatever you might think of the cause she advocates, you would, you could not help, yielding to her the most profound respect. So true a soul, this age scarcely knows. So brave a spirit, in its allegiance to duty, its recognition of the voice of God to the soul, I almost think our sex never knew except in Joan of Arc! I do not like to write such things of her, while she is still living, and I hope she will never see them, but for the world's sake, 'tis well that they should be uttered. I heard her (in urging a young friend to decide for herself, upon a certain course of conduct,) relate, that when she returned from Oberlin she told her mother that, now that she had obtained an education, she was going to speak for Women and Negroes. Her mother said, with tears in her eyes,—"My child! I would rather follow you to the grave, than have you do so." "My heart was full of tears," said Lucy,—"and I did not speak then. We both went about our work. Afterward I said, 'mother, there is One, that has a nearer claim upon me, than even you.' 'I know it Lucy, and I know you do it, because you think you ought to, but I would rather you were dead.' And so with this burden to bear, I went, and I was hissed, and I was hooted at, and I was pelted with vile missiles, but I have lived through it all,—thank God." Her mother from defending her child when attacked, as any mother would, became herself converted, and rejoices now, that Lucy obeyed her own convictions of duty.

Can you think, Mr. Editor, of so young a girl toiling through all those years, to educate herself, with no assistance from her father? Picking chestnuts when a child, to buy school books; teaching district schools, till she amassed $50; going then to Oberlin, and by teaching classes there, and boarding herself, graduating at last,—and then in spite of every social obstacle, with all the delicacy and sensibility of a refined woman, going in public to advocate the cause of the oppressed slave, and to labor for the elevation of her sex,—can you think of all this, and not reverence the strength with which God himself has endowed her? Could anything less than God, and Truth, have sustained her through all those long years? I can conceive of the enthusiasm of an hour, a day, which can make men and women lofty in their determination to accept the martyr's fate, and achieve the hero's task—but when I think of Lucy Stone, unaided and alone, against the wishes of those whom she best loved on earth, commencing in the very teeth of a whole world's prejudice, a task so thankless, for a reform which to almost every one but herself, appeared so needless, I cannot but recognize in her, an exhibition of that Divine Power, which God sometimes shows to the wondering world. Shall men mock at her, and her work? Forbid it, every self respecting emotion! Forbid it, ye blue skies, that look down upon the children of men, and see things in the light of their eternal relations!

Do you remember, Mr. Editor, that after the Republican victory in Maine last Fall, you wrote a very gracious, and sensible article, recognizing the influence which the women of Maine had exerted over the voters? You published also, a spirited letter from "Belle Tudor" in which she asked the question, "How women with their earnest hearts beating for Freedom, can effectually aid the right side?" The memory of these two articles in your paper, has led me to take the pains now, to correct your impressions concerning Mrs. Lucy Stone. In the case of most Editors, I should have considered it in vain to attempt to change the prevailing tone of newspaper sneer, when woman's rights was the topic. But you recognized a positive influence from woman, on the right side, last Fall—and in your heart, I do not doubt, that you believe that if the women of these United States could have voted, Fremont's election, would have been nearly certain. At any rate I heard a great many individual Republicans say that "just for once they wished women could vote"! Now as a woman, I do not wish that all women could vote. I think our Republican institutions are sorely tried now, by all men's voting, and I would not have the gates opened to a wider flood of ignorance and fraud than there is already at the ballot-box. But a petition to our Legislature, to allow all women to vote who can read and write their own name, their vote, and place of residence, would gain many signers among the men and women of Bangor. I trust that when such a petition is presented to you, you will sign with "alacrity,"—and that you will not have to "conquer your prejudices," to do it. I think Maine will be true to her motto and take the lead of all the N. E. States, in carrying out in this matter, the Democratic doctrine, that "Governments derive all just power from the consent of the governed." The people of one County in Maine, elected a woman to the office of Register of Deeds, because she had been earning her living by doing the duties of the office, under the previous incumbent—and it cannot be a great step from that election to declare that women who are fit to vote, may do so. To allow women the rights and duties of citizenship will essentially aid them, in taking for themselves the far more important right of self support. Will not men do something, or anything, which shall aid woman to throw off the shackles of fashion—the curse of gentility, which compels her to look to man for her bread and butter, from the cradle to the grave? Men suffer intellectually, spiritually, in the present state of society, from the burthen of business, the care of supporting business, occupation, vocation, or whatever it may be called. True, there is one department that women can be busy enough in,—that of house-keeping, but all women cannot be house-keepers, and as that profession is one of work without wages, it lacks one element of satisfaction. Beside 'tis an undeniable fact, that no more of that is accepted by woman than necessity compels. Something better must be found, before happiness, according to Spurzheim's definition, "the employment of the faculties," can be found. And "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," are rights which we all believe in.

In conclusion, allow me to say, that I expect you to atone for your article upon Lucy Stone by publishing this, and by reading the tract which I send you. The tract is an article from the Westminster Review, and when you have read it please answer the arguments, if you can! If you cannot then own yourself converted and throw your influence on the side, to which we shall all, sooner or later, arrive.

The Journal's Washington correspondent of the 17th slobbers Mr. Toucey of Conn., most profusely. It is now supposed that gentleman will override Clifford of this State in the contest for the New England place in Buchanan's Cabinet, and of course will become the dispenser of patronage to New England, to a large extent. Hence the energetic application of soft soap from the various organ-grinders of the office-seekers. As Clifford's prospects waned, the songs of his praise waxed faint from these political laureates of fortune, and their harps are now tuned for Toucey. These gentlemen have no fears that Mr. Buchanan's administration will fail to be a successful one, provided there are no mistakes in the dispensation of appointments to office. This is the one all-important subject with them. These gentlemen say to Mr. Buchanan: "Give the offices to us, and to our clique, and your administration will be gloriously successful." "If you do not, you will make a very bad mistake, as President Pierce did,—and your administration will be a failure." Meanwhile, Pierce's appointees who are comfortably in office, say to Mr. Buchanan—"You will make a fatal mistake if you turn us and our friends out"—"Your administration cannot stand a year if you do it." What is poor Buchanan to do in such a case as this? We must leave him to cogitate that question.

The Journal man, while stuffing Toucey, is careful to dwell on his "devotion to the Constitution" and to hint at his condemnation therefor by his own State. This means his devotion to the Constitution as the Southern leaders construe it, when they say it allows of no limitations to slavery. It means that Mr. Toucey has been loyal to the Southern interests, and is therefore sound in the view of these office-seekers.

The Augusta Age professes to have seen an authentic copy of Mr. Fuller's "Revenue Bill," and says it does not contain the provision attributed to it by the Journal of Commerce and other papers, admitting foreign built vessels to American trade, whenever they are owned wholly or in part in the United States. It says also that Mr. Washburn and Mr. Benson of this State support the Bill. If this is true, it cannot contain the objectionable features alleged; but we see that the Portland merchants have sent a protest to Congress against its passage,—as being hostile to our commercial interests—and we apprehend the Age may not be altogether correct in its explanations. We have not seen a copy of the bill and our comments were based upon the statements of the Journal of Commerce and other New York and Boston papers.

The building erected for the Inauguration Ball at Washington occupies a breadth of 77 feet, a length of 235 feet, and covers an area of more than 18,000 square feet. But this includes two rooms, the larger, of 56 feet wide, for dancing alone, and the other, of 21 feet wide for the purpose of a supper room. It is calculated that from four to six thousand persons can be accommodated. It cost $16,000, and the hats and coats which will be cribbed there on the evening of March 4th would half cover the expense.

FIRE AT LEWISTON. The building attached to the machine shop of the Lewiston Iron Works was destroyed by fire on Friday night, together with the machinery, engine and tools. The building was occupied by Messrs. Reynolds, Steimits & Co. The origin of the fire is not known. Loss estimated at from $3000 to $5000, which is partially covered by insurance.

PUBLIC DECLAMATIONS by some of the pupils of the Boys' High School, will take place to-night at Norombega Hall, under direction of Mr. John F. Deane, their Principal. Ticket No. 11 of the Mercantile Course will admit to the Hall. Single tickets 25 cents.

The exercises will be very interesting, and we trust our citizens will give the boys a full house.

LARGE OXEN.—Messrs Jones & Trickey recently purchased a pair of oxen, fatted by Mr. Nath'l. Garland of Carmel, which yielded, when slaughtered, 2920 lbs. of beef, hide, and tallow. These are, we believe, the best oxen brought into market this season. They paid $260, for the pair. The beef is to be seen at their stall in the Central Market.

A bill to prevent the circulation of Abolition documents and newspapers has been introduced into the Louisiana Legislature. The bill makes it a criminal offence to take an Abolition paper.

An act to establish Chelsea, Mass., as a city has been reported in the Senate, providing for a board of government to consist of a mayor, eight aldermen, and twenty common councilmen.

The citizens of Middlebury, Vt., have voted to raise $100,000 for a new State House if that place shall be selected for the State Capitol.

The Albany Knickerbocker states that Farrell, whose testimony tended so strongly in pointing the finger of guilt at Eckel as the murderer of Dr. Burdell, was some four years ago a resident of that city. He was subsequently arrested for fraudulent voting, but was admitted to bail, which he forfeited and fled the city. These facts, if maintained, will materially affect his credibility as a witness.

Keokuk and the Black Hawk War.

[A correspondent at Keokuk, Iowa, a city now of 16,000 inhabitants and one of the most flourishing places in the great West, sends us the following reminiscences of the famous Black Hawk War, and of the chiefs, Black Hawk and Keokuk:]

In the early part of April, 1832, Black Hawk with his whole party, rashly and in violation of the treaty of the previous year, crossed to the east side of the Mississippi for the avowed purpose of ascending the Rock river to the territory of their friends, the Winnebagoes, and carrying a crop of corn and beans with them. General Armstrong, then stationed at Fort Armstrong, with 300 volunteers and 300 militia ascended Rock river in boats to Dixon's Ferry. But the first to come up with Black Hawk, was Maj. Stillman who on the 14th of May, with 275 mounted militia arrived within 3 miles of Black Hawk's camp. Black Hawk sent to him by their young men, a flag of truce. The bearers were fired upon and one of them killed. Upon learning this Black Hawk desperately started to meet the enemy with about 40 men—nearly all his young men being absent. He soon met Maj. Stillman's command, and charged on them with such tremendous energy that they fled with the utmost consternation. This battle was ever after known by the name of "Stillman's Run." War ensued. Three thousand Illinois militia marched to Rock river where they were joined by the U. S. troops—600 mounted men were also ordered out, while Gen. Scott with nine companies of artillery moved with such celerity as to pass from Fort Monroe on the Chesapeake to Chicago, a distance of 1800 miles, in eighteen days; but before they reached the scene of action, the western troops had closed the contest. After several battles had been fought, Black Hawk was taken on the 27th of August, and in September the Indian troubles were ended by a treaty which relinquished to the white men, six millions of acres of land, (for which stipulated annuities were to be paid) constituting now the Eastern portion of the State of Iowa, and called the "Black Hawk Purchase."

To Keokuk and his party a reservation of 40 square miles was made, including his village, in consideration of his fidelity; while Black Hawk, and his family were sent to Fort Monroe as hostages, where they remained till June 1833.

Throughout the war Keokuk remained peaceful, and controlled for peace a portion of his tribes. His services in this respect, his character, and the fact that his name has been given to our city, invest him with a peculiar interest.

Keokuk often lost his popularity with his nation by his efforts to keep them at peace with the United States—and nothing but his wonderful eloquence and tact sustained him. He was once deposed by his tribes, and a young chief elected in his place, but his people to their chagrin soon discovered their mistake.—He still ruled and rapidly rose to his former position.

Keokuk, ("Watchful Fox") was a native of the Sac Nation and was born about the year 1780. He was not a hereditary chief, but rose to that dignity by the force of talent and enterprise. He was a man of extraordinary eloquence in council; fertile in resources on the field of battle; possessed of desperate bravery, and never at a loss in any emergency. His style of thought and manner of speaking have been compared to those of a distinguished United States Senator from S. C.—with gracefulness of action in Keokuk's favor. He had six wives,—was fond of display, and on his visits of state to other tribes, moved with more savage magnificence than any other chief on the continent.

Keokuk was a noble looking man, five feet ten inches high, portly and would weigh over 200. He had an eagle eye, a dignified bearing, and a manly intelligent expression of countenance. He always painted and was dressed in Indian costume. He died in Missouri a year or two ago—and was succeeded by his son.

DEMOCRATIC CENSORSHIP OF THE POST OFFICES. The postmaster at North Ridgeville, Ohio, has sent the following note to the editors of the New-York Tribune:

"NORTH RIDGEVILLE, Ohio, Feb. 12, 1857. N. Y. Tribune: The Lorain Co. Democratic Central Committee have notified me to return all newspapers to the publishers, that come to my office without the names of subscribers on them.

D. BEEBE, JR., P. M."

Another person writes:

"Our Postmaster has received instructions from J. W. Gray not to deliver the Tribune, if it should happen to come here. This places our Postmaster in rather a tight place, as they are now getting up a club of twenty in this town, the names of which you will receive in a few days."

Really, we are coming to a queer state of things, when a Postmaster takes his instructions for the discharge of his official duty from the Democratic county committee.

The rush of office-seekers to Washington is said to be greater, if possible, than it was at the advent of the Pierce administration. The ins go there to fortify themselves with the new administration,—and the outs, rendered ravenously hungry by a forced abstinence of eight years, are rushing to the receipt of customs and patronage—a lean, gaunt and most determined pack. Never was there a more fierce onslaught for the offices, even, upon a change of dominant parties. Washington is already full to overflowing.

The Dover (N. H.) Enquirer gives the following account of the rush from New Hampshire:

"The buzzards are flocking to Washington from this State, and it is said by some of the black democracy that enough will not be left at home to enable them to muster a quorum of the party at the polls on election day. A correspondent of the Portsmouth Gazette says, "there are about fifty applicants for the office of Commissioner for the new Custom House in Portsmouth, and for the land offices in Nebraska, Kansas and other places west, scores and scores appear." "I cannot (he says,) begin to enumerate them."

Supreme Judicial Court—Criminal Term—Cutting J.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 25.

The case of State vs John Evans, for larceny or receiving stolen goods, was completed, and went to the jury about 3 o'clock; they returned a verdict of guilty on the first count for larceny, and not guilty on the second for receiving stolen goods. Evans' counsel move for a new trial, on the ground that the verdict is against evidence.

SENTENCES ON PRISONERS.

The Court pronounced the following sentences.

Dennis Finn—three years in State Prison, for larceny of $112 in bank bills and other property from the store of Atwood & Nickerson of this city.

Anthony Curran—State Prison, for life, for the crime of arson—setting fire to the barn of Mr. Ammon Lewis of Orono, in the night time, the barn being connected with a dwelling-house, in which were a family.

Pickard Kaniger—two years in the State Prison, for larceny of property to the amount of about $120 from the Avenue House in this city.

Samuel Wheeler and Chas. H. Pety, for breaking and entering a store in the night time, and stealing therefrom—two years in State Prison.

Geo. W. Morrill—two years in State Prison for larceny (of a clock and other articles from a poor colored woman, whom he had deceived by an offer of marriage.)

Wm. H. Reed—ten years in the State Prison—having been convicted of breaking and entering three different stores in the night time, and being adjudged a common thief. Reed is a young man, apparently not 21 years of age. He received his sentence with a smiling countenance.

Henry Smith,—eight years in the State Prison, (four each on two indictments) for breaking and entering shops in the night time and stealing to a large amount. This prisoner is also a very young man.

Catherine Riley (formerly "Kate Ford,") for simple larceny, (having been already in jail five months) 60 days in the House of Correction.

There being no further cases for trial, the juries were discharged (the 1st jury discharged on Tuesday.)

The Court will probably adjourn to-day.

The news from Nicaragua, by the Tennessee, at New York, is as usual, conflicting.—The parties in the interest of Walker represent his condition as fast improving. The Panama letter writers and newspapers (although their intelligence is not so late) represent his situation as a desperate one, with no hopes of improvement. The despatch published yesterday morning gave the Walker version of affairs. The Panama Star of Feb. 7th, has advices from Nicaragua to Feb. 2d, per steamer Orizaba, as follows:

By this conveyance we have information direct from Rivas, Walker's head quarters, through an entirely disinterested and reliable channel.

An attack had been made on General Canas at Obraje, on the 26th ult., by Walker's troops, under the command of General Henningsen, which lasted about twenty-four hours, and in which five of Walker's rangers were killed and Capt. Phinney mortally wounded, and it is said that the allies lost about eighty killed; reports from the best informed quarters state that this number is much exaggerated. Walker finding himself over matched, ordered a retreat and fell back upon Rivas.

On the 28th Henningsen again, with a force of 400 men, attacked the allies who had advanced to St. George within one league of Rivas. After eighteen hours' fighting, Walker's forces retreated again, falling back upon Rivas, with a loss of 16 killed and 33 wounded, a large part of whom were officers. It is reported that the allies lost 400 killed and 400 wounded, but other reports state that one third of these figures would cover the whole number.

On the 30th, Walker arrived at San Juan Del Sur with a force of 300 men, to guard up the recruits (60 men), and supplies expected from San Francisco, on the Orizaba. He returned to Rivas on the evening of the 2d instant.

It was supposed Walker would attack the allies at St. George about the 4th inst.

General Canas' force at St. George is said to consist of about 1600 men, strongly posted and barricaded. Walker's force of fighting men is said to be 800 all told, of which a portion must of course always be left to guard Rivas, so that he can in no case bring over 500 men in the field, out of Rivas. It is supposed that the allies have 1000 more available men which can be landed by the steamers on the lake, and it is reported that about 1100 Guatemala troops had been landed at Realejo.

Canas marched a force of 400 men into Virgin Bay on the 1st instant, and after occupying the town a few hours, he rejoined his force at St. George.

Walker has had no communication with the lake or river since the steamers were seized by the Costa Ricans, nor has he any means of doing so.

"From Greytown, all we learn, is that the recruits brought out by the Texas and Tennessee for Walker have been moved up the river to prevent their desertion, and are stationed on a mud flat, about six miles below the Costa Rican encampment, into whom they fired a few shots when attempting to ascend the river. A number of deserters came down to Aspinwall on the British steamer Solent, for the purpose of making their way back again to the United States. Some of these men escaped down the river on logs of wood at the risk of their lives. They give a most unfavorable account of the situation of the poor fellows whom they left, and state that they are dying off rapidly from exposure to the weather and bad food."

PREMATURE FUNERAL.—An admonition against hasty funerals occurred last week at Fremont, Ohio. Daniel Stearns, who had been sick with a fever, apparently died. All arrangements were made, and the friends and the clergymen were assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the supposed deceased, when the body appeared warm to the touch.—Restoratives were administered, and in a few minutes the man who came so near being buried alive, was sitting up. He is now in a fair way of recovery.

THE GOOD OF THE GARROTTE.—Two hack drivers had adjourned from their stand to an eating-house. "I say, Bill," exclaimed one, "this is bad work, this 'ere grottin." "Bad work!" responded the other; "unkimmon good work—I finds it! All the timid old gents as used to walk 'ome of a hevenin', stead o' that, now they stands a chance o' bein' grotted, takes a hack."

RIVER AND HARBOR APPROPRIATIONS. The friends of internal improvements in the House, despairing at this late period of the session of passing the numerous river and harbor appropriation bills, reported from the Committee on Commerce, have agreed to unite them, all in one bill, and in this form there is no doubt they will pass both branches of Congress, although a Presidential veto is expected. This bill will include the following appropriations for New England:

Legislative.

MONDAY, Feb. 23.

SENATE.—Order from the House directing the Committee on the Judiciary to prepare and report a bill fixing the necessary number of Bank Commissioners, their compensation, &c., was amended on motion of Mr. Herrick by striking out Judiciary Committee, and inserting Committee on Banks and Banking, and as amended passed.

HOUSE.—The Speaker announced the following members as the committee on the part of the House to which was referred the "Bill in relation to free Banking," viz:—Messrs. Copp of Liberty, Stone of Brewer, Woodman of Bucksport, Morrison of Farmington, Strickland of Bangor, Tolman of Rockland, Merrill of Harmony.

Mr. Tolman, from the Committee on Finance, reported a resolve laying a tax on the several counties of the State, as follows:—Androscoggin, $13,000; Aroostook $2,500; Hancock, $8,000; Kennebec, $18,000; Cumberland, $32,000; Lincoln $11,000; Oxford, $9,500; Penobscot, $26,000; Piscataquis, $1,900; Somerset, $5,000; Franklin, $3,276; Sagadahoc, $6,000; Washington, $9,625; Waldo, $8,000; York, $21,700.

Passed to be engrossed—An act in relation to directors of corporations, directing that three-fourths of said directors shall reside within the United States; an act relating to judicial proceedings; an act to change the name of the Board of Education of the Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; an act in addition to chapter 77 of the Revised Statutes in relation to banks; an act authorizing the first school district in Bucksport to raise money; an act additional to act to incorporate the Kenduskeag Log Driving Company.

SENATOR SUMNER.—Mr. Sumner will probably leave Boston this afternoon on his way to Washington, it being his desire to be present in the Senate when the vote is taken on the tariff. He is still obliged to pass his evenings in his chamber, and since the time of the assault he has not passed a single evening out of it. During the day time, however, he regularly takes exercise out of doors, either in riding or walking, and within the past few months his capacity for intellectual labor has much increased. He has fully decided upon making a visit to Europe in the hope thereby of gaining complete restoration to health, and has accordingly secured a passage in the steamship Fulton, which leaves New York on the 7th of March next, for Havre.—Boston Courier.

The Rochester Union contains an extraordinary statement of a case of needle mania, prepared by Dr. Charles Sumner, of that city, which the editor says has been verified to his own satisfaction. A young lady in Otsego county, was laboring under a terrible mania, which impelled her to thrust needles and pieces of wire into her flesh, where they remained until removed by surgical aid. Dr. Sumner, who attended this young lady, has extracted from her body and limbs the enormous number of three hundred and eighty-three needles.

The following is the number of pardons granted by the Governors of New York during the last ten years:—

By Gov. Young	238
By Gov. Fish	109
By Gov. Hunt	411
By Gov. Seymour	465
By Gov. Clark	580

SUFFERING OF MECHANICS IN ENGLAND.—A meeting of between five and ten thousand of the laboring classes of London was lately held to consider their present distressed condition. It was stated, that 25,000 of the building trade alone in that city are out of work, and that the total number of unemployed persons in that great metropolis would probably reach a quarter of a million. It was voted to petition the government to employ those who would work on the lands, loaning them money to drain and till them.

THE LOWER KENNEBEC AGAIN FREE. The Bath Tribune says: "On Wednesday the embargo which king frost put upon navigation here, was removed, and we have communication with the sea. The river was closed just one month.

Wilbor's Compound of Pure Cod Liver OIL AND LIME.

The great advantage of this compound over the plain Oil is that the nauseating taste of the oil is entirely removed, and the whole rendered entirely palatable. The offensive taste of the oil has long acted as a prominent objection to its use; but in this form the trouble is entirely obviated. A host of certificates might be given here to testify to the excellence and success of WILBOR'S COD LIVER OIL and LIME, but the fact that it is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty is sufficient.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

SENATE.—The Submarine Telegraph bill was taken up.

Mr Toombs resumed his remarks against the bill, calling it a violation of the constitution and of justice, and a scheme which would subserve no interests excepting those of speculators and jobbers.

Mr Thompson of Kentucky moved to postpone the further consideration of the bill until the 4th of March. Lost by 25 against 28.

Messrs. Foot, Benjamin and Bayard advocated the bill, and Messrs. Jones of Tennessee, and Butler opposed it.

Further consideration of the bill was suspended by the arrival of the time for resuming the consideration of the special order, it being the bill authorizing the people of Minnesota Territory to form a constitution and State government preliminary to their admission into the Union.

Mr Hunter gave notice that as soon as the Minnesota bill was disposed of, he should move to reconsider the tariff bill.

The Senate by yeas 31 against nays 24, reconsidered the vote by which the amendment was adopted, restricting the right of suffrage to citizens of the United States, and then struck out the amendment by a vote of 32 against 24 and passed the bill in the precise form in which it came from the House, by yeas 31 against nays 22.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Submarine Telegraph bill. After discussion Mr Iverson moved to lay the bill on the table. Lost 24 against 29.

Mr Hunter's amendment providing that the contract shall not be binding until approved by Congress was rejected.

Mr Iverson moved for the insertion of a proviso in the bill, that the officers of the company shall make annual returns under oath, to the capital stock actually paid in, and expended, and the nett profits of the association.

The House amendments were then agreed to—the bill now only requires the action of the President.

On motion of Mr Hunter the tariff bill was directed to be taken up in order, so that it might not be among the unfinished business at the time of adjournment.

By unanimous consent Mr Gwinn presented the credentials of Mr Broderick, as Senator from California, for six years from the 4th of March next.

Mr Slidell, from the committee on foreign relations, reported a joint resolution allowing commanders Hartstein, Lieut. Trenchard, Master Morrison and the petty officers and crew of the steamer Vixen to accept some tokens of acknowledgement from the government of great Britain. Adj.

HOUSE.—Mr. Davis of Md., called up the resolution of the Select Committee for the expulsion from the House of Mr. A. Gilbert.

Mr. Bennett of New York, said that certain parts of the testimony of the witnesses Sweeney and Simonton were not published with the evidence, such omissions having been made by direction of the Committee. The suppressed testimony is deemed material to Mr. Gilbert's defence.

Mr. Davis of Md. remarked there was no evidence which had not been printed.

Mr. Bennett said he could prove that Mr. Sweeny was induced to swear to just as much as would convict Mr. Gilbert, and nothing more. Every honest man would rebel against such conduct.

Mr. Warner asked on what authority Mr. Bennett made his statement.

Mr. Bennett declined to answer, but said if the gentleman would go to the printing office, he would see what was stricken out.

Mr. Humphrey Marshall wished to know whether Mr. Gilbert wished to have a trial.

Mr. Bennett replied, that Mr. Gilbert not only wished but demanded a trial on the proceedings against him.

Mr. Humphrey Marshall said, that being that being the case, it did not matter whether all the testimony was printed or not, as he supposed the witnesses would be procured here.

Mr. [illegible] said he had sent up to the printing office for the original document. This was subsequently compared in some parts with the printed volume, by which it appeared that among others, omissions were made to the following effect: When Sweeney was cross-examined as to Gilbert he said: "I do not wish to touch on a case of this kind; I shall be able to break down the testimony I have already given in another part." Sweeney says: "It seems to me you have already evidence enough to convict him (Gilbert)." And again the witness said: "You should not lead me so far as to make what I have said improbable."

Mr. Orr now said that the change in every respect was made at the instance of Mr. Sweeney, who wished to present his testimony fairly and properly before the House.

Mr. Stanton inquired whether the committee had consented to this mode of trial.

Mr. Orr replied that it was for the House to determine whether they would give the matter the go by, but for himself he would not consent to give the accused higher and greater privileges than those which have been enjoyed by members heretofore.

Mr. Ritchie said that the form of trial was not discussed in the select committee. As to Sweeney, when the clerk read to him his testimony he stated that such parts as he desired to omit were mere loose conversations in which he was trying to beg off from giving testimony.

Mr. Unige understood that the accused had put in an answer to the charges.

The Speaker remarked that it had not been [illegible].

Mr. Nichols said in this particular case an answer has been made and printed, and would be filed to-day by the member particularly implicated.

Mr. Bennett caused to be read a paper from Mr. Gilbert, who denies the truth of charges against him, demands a trial, and asks that certain ex parte testimony of Sweeney and Simonton be produced and printed, deeming it to contain certain matters, material to his defence.

Mr. Bennett then offered a resolution having the latter object in view, and moved to recommit the report.

Mr. Orr, on the part of the committee, said that Mr. Simonton declined to give the names of certain witnesses, except on the condition that they shall not be published as evidence. Mr. Orr assumed that this was not testimony affecting the merits of the case. It was merely the surmises of Mr. Simonton. He had no objection to the House sending to the printing office and obtaining everything suppressed.

Mr. McMullen said it was the duty of Congress to give the accused a fair trial. This was accorded to the meanest criminal. In his opinion the committee had performed their duty creditably to themselves and to the nation.—But he was in favor of giving the accused everything he could in fairness ask, including the suppressed portion, which is deemed by the accused material to his defence.

Mr. Davis of Md. regarded Mr. Gilbert on trial upon the evidence presented.

Mr. Stanton said if the committee were acting as a grand jury then it was right to take ex parte testimony. In his opinion, however, the committee partook of the character of a secret inquisition,—for the witnesses were forced to utter expressions or innuendoes. The accused should have a fair trial, and it was the duty of the House to recall the witnesses to give the general evidence before this body.

Mr. Purviance, in order to save time and test the sense of the House, offered a resolution that to-morrow at meridian be assigned as the time for the trial of Mr. Gilbert, and that the sergeant at arms be directed to summon Mr. Triplett and Mr. Sweeney to appear before the bar of the House to be examined as witnesses.

Mr. Washburn of Me., maintained that the testimony should be as fully and truly before the House as it was before the committee, which had acted strangely and in a manner which could not be sustained by the sober and deliberate judgment of this House.

Mr. Cadwalader argued that Mr. Gilbert, by his own statement, has admitted the truth of the charge again. Mr. Gilbert requested Mr. Cadwalader to read further on in the report, which he did, reading the words, "no agreement was made with Mr. Gilbert by Sweeney, Triplett, or any other person, nor was I to have any benefit from the passage of the book resolution."

Mr. Cadwalader then insisted that Mr. Gilbert's conduct was in its nature corrupt.—Whether the money passed into the pocket of one prostitute or another made no difference as to the fact.

Mr. Keitt's object in rising was, as Col. Benton says, "to vindicate the truth of history." He then alluded to the course taken in the case of Mr. Brooks, and referred to the journals to establish the fact that those who are now so vociferous in branding the Select Committee as a star chamber inquisition and demanding that witnesses be heard at the bar of the House, were in the first instance impatient for summary proceedings on Mr. Brooks, Mr. Edmundson and himself; the difference is, the former case was an assault and battery, while this was one of plunder. (Laughter.) In conclusion he said, the House have no right to graduate their rules of evidence according to the character of the defence.

Mr. Colfax said he was but slightly acquainted with Mr. Gilbert, and did not rise as his advocate, but to point out why, although he would certainly vote to expel a member for bribery, he could not vote for his expulsion on the evidence submitted, even if it had not been impeached. He pointed out gross contradictions between Mr. Triplett and Mr. Sweeney. On the first day neither remembered Mr. Welch in spite of the most searching questions, while three days after, both implicate him at the same session of the committee, and Mr. Triplett remembered then dozens of conversations with him, and on the next day further remembered that Mr. Welch solicited more pay, if they had it to distribute. Mr. Sweeney also twice testified that he had an individual contract with Mr. Triplett, but the committee did not ask him what it was. Mr. Triplett said Mr. Sweeney was not present when Mr. Gilbert was introduced; but the committee did not attempt to prove by Mr. Triplett who introduced them.

Mr. Colfax then proceeded to show various flat contradictions.

Mr. Letcher said they were all laboring under a misapprehension of analogy. These proceedings were not to be likened to those of a grand jury, or to an examination on a criminal trial. The whole point is whether the House have come to a conclusion from the evidence, that they will no longer recognize the accused as members and as associates.

Mr. Gilbert's defence was then read.

He assumes that the committee went beyond the power conferred by the resolution under which they were appointed. He says the only two witnesses against him are Mr. Sweeney and Mr. Triplett, who stand by their own confessions, in the position of acknowledged accomplices in each other's guilt, and that they seek to connect him with themselves in their offence, thereby to escape the consequences of it. The shallow effort of the committee to strengthen their statements by their corroboration of each other, would excite a smile were it not done for the grave purpose of affixing a guilty stain on a fellow member. Five witnesses of high personal character, great intelligence, and unquestioned integrity, swear that Mr. Sweeney's character is bad for truth and veracity, and that they would not believe him on oath, and the committee themselves are constrained to confess he is vindictive when provoked, and not over scrupulous in his measures of revenge. Mr. Triplett had no more than Mr. Sweeney's word that any member of Congress was interested in the book resolution.

Mr. Gilbert then repeats he never stipulated for any quantity of land or other pecuniary consideration for his vote for that or any other measure. He submits his case to the House, demanding an open trial by the House, where justice will be administered according to legal evidence and in legal form, and where his rights as a man and his privileges as a member will be respected—protesting his innocence in fact and intention in every respect wherewith he stands charged and with an apology for the length of his remarks, he cheerfully abides the judgment of the House.

The House by a vote of 73 against 120, disagreed to the resolution that the report be recommitted with instructions to print the omitted parts of the testimony and all the particulars relative to the suggestions and responses from Mr. Sweeney and Mr. Simonton.

Mr. Bennett said that Mr. Gilbert desired to be heard to-morrow morning, and moved an adjournment.

Mr. Dunn said that Mr. Gilbert ought to be indulged under the circumstances. Adj.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

Mr. Edwards has prepared a statement of considerable length, solemnly asserting the falsity of the charges against him, and his innocence both in fact and intention. He says the charge is unsupported by proof and rests only on mistaken inferences and impressions.

Mr. Matteson will also submit a defence.

The House was in continuous session seven hours and a half in the case of Gilbert. The galleries were densely crowded.

Mr. Sumner rested during the day at Philadelphia. He reached Washington this evening somewhat weary, but quite comfortable.

Mexican Treaty.

New York, Feb. 25.

(Washington correspondence of the Tribune.) Intelligence has been received from the bearer of despatches to the State Department and the Mexican legation, that they will be here to-night with the new Mexican treaty.

The government had previously received advices from Minister Forsyth, dated the 2d of February, stating that he was negotiating a treaty, but as no instructions had been given him to acquire territory, its final conditions are not distinctly known.

Accounts sent the Mexican legation by the last steamer, conflict in their statements as to the material points of arrangement.

She had on board 20 persons. Her former chief officer states that he cut the letters S. S. B. on the heel of her mast. It is feared that she was wrecked during the gale of the 19th, and went to pieces.

Steamer Sailed.

New York, 25th.

Shortly before her sailing strict orders were sent to the officers from the owners, to admit no one unless he had a ticket signed by them and directly from their office. In consequence of this order many fillibusters who had passage tickets, were refused admittance on board the steamer. This unexpected decision on the part of the owners caused much excitement on the wharf.

It is supposed the owners were incited to this course by hints from government officials.

HON. HANNIBAL HAMLIN AND LADY, arrived in this city last evening, by the afternoon train of cars from Augusta. Mr. Hamlin sent in his resignation of the office of Governor of Maine, to take effect last night and his place will be filled by Hon. Joseph H. Williams of Augusta, President of the Senate. Mr. H. will remain a few days in this vicinity, previous to his departure for Washington to again resume his Senatorial duties.

On Thursday evening last Governor Hamlin gave a farewell Levee, at Augusta, to members of the Legislature, the State Government and other invited guests, which was a most successful affair. The guests numbered five hundred or more, and the evening was one of great pleasantness to all present. It was closed by a few social dances, in which the company joined, with a zest that showed that they heartily enjoyed them. Mr. Hamlin is perfectly at home in every situation, whether in the U. S. Senate, in the gubernatorial chair, or in the drawing room; and his lady did the honors of the evening with a grace and ease that would do credit even to "our Jessie."

We are indebted to Mr. Crane, of Hodgman, Carr & Co's Express, for late papers. Also to Mr. Stimpson of the P. & K. Railroad.

MELANCHOLY SUICIDE. Daniel E. Bennett, an assistant measurer in the Boston Custom House, committed suicide in one of the rooms of the Custom House, on Saturday afternoon. As he did not make his appearance at home that evening his family and friends became anxious in regard to his safety, and a search was instituted about midnight. The Custom House was opened, and a thorough examination of all the rooms took place. The body was finally found about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, in one of the basement rooms. He lay upon his back, entirely lifeless, and upon examination it was found that he had died by his own hands. He went into the room before the Custom House was closed in the afternoon, and after every person had left the building, having removed the clothing from his breast, and placed the muzzle of his pistol close to the skin, deliberately shot himself just below the heart.

SUICIDE ON THE KENNEBEC RAIL ROAD. We learn that as the train was passing through Hallowell on Monday last, a man was seen walking towards the train outside of the track—but when within a few feet of the cars he suddenly stepped upon the track, when he was struck by the locomotive and thrown some fifteen or twenty feet and almost instantly killed. He was about 45 years of age. [Portland Argus.]

GROVER & BAKER'S New Family Sewing Machines! PRICE $75.00.

Reasons

Why Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINE —IS— Universally preferred for Family Sewing.

1st. It is more simple and easily kept in order than any other Machine.

2d. It makes a seam which will not rip or ravel though every third stitch is cut.

3d. It sews from two ordinary spools and thus all trouble of winding thread is avoided, while the same Machine can be adapted at pleasure, by a mere change of spools, to all varieties of work.

4th. The same Machine runs silk, linen thread, and common spool cotton, with equal facility.

5th. The seam is as elastic as the most elastic fabric, so that it is free from all liability to break in washing, ironing, or otherwise.

6th. The stitch made by this Machine is more beautiful than any other made either by hand or machine.

We have been appointed agents for the above Machines, and have them for exhibition and sale at our store, where the public are invited to examine them. FENNO & HALE.

G. W. STONE'S
LIQUID CATHARTIC
—AND—
FAMILY PHYSIC,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the finest, powerful, safe and agreeable physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, Regulates the action of the Liver, frees the stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Tic Doloureux, Gout, Pain in the Head, Side, Stomach, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels—DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA AND CHOLERA MORBUS, yield at once to its magical influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is at hand. Are you suffering from Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness, three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them.—All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe, and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1,00.

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING, AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry and you will seldom need a Physician.

IS it not a truth that when the feet are often wet, it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It is a truth that when leather is often wet and dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and cracks; but when it is water-proof it is remedied. By the application of this preservative, it remains soft, and entirely impervious to water.

After being engaged for 25 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches, and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I was led to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water-proof, but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather. At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the astringent properties with which leather is tanned. It will not only make leather water-proof, but it likewise softens the leather, and it will Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years, and a large part of the time have worked in a wet Tannery, with my boots constantly in water, and have not had my feet wet during that time. I can therefore in all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market.

NEW AND IMPORTANT DISCOVERY IN THE SCIENCE OF MEDICINE.

TRIESEMAR.—None are genuine unless the engravings of the Seals of the Patent Office of England, the Seals of the Ecole de Pharmacie de Paris, and the Imperial College of Vienna are fixed upon each wrapper and around each case:

Sold by Dr. H. A. BARROW—Member of the Imperial College of Vienna, and Royal College of Surgeons, London, who may be personally consulted at his residence, No. 157 Prince Street, (few blocks West of Broadway) New York, from 11 o'clock in the morning till 2, and from 4 o'clock till 8 in the evening, (Sundays excepted.)

TRIESEMAR No. 1—is the remedy of general and local debility, loss of virile power, premature decay, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, &c.; all physical impediments vanish like magic before its influence, thus rendering it a boon invaluable to those entering the marriage state.

TRIESEMAR No. 2—Entirely eradicates all traces of those disorders which copavia and cubebs have so long been thought an antidote for to the ruin of the health of a vast portion of the population.

TRIESEMAR No. 3—is the great European remedy for that class of disorders which, unfortunately, the English physician treats with mercury to the inevitable destruction of the patient's constitution, and which all the Sarsaparilla in the world cannot remove.

TRIESEMAR Nos. 1, 2 and 3—are prepared in the form of a lozenge, devoid of taste or smell, and can be carried in the waistcoat pocket. Sold in tin cases and divided in separate doses, as administered by Valpeau, Lallemand, Roux, Ricord, &c. &c. Price $3 each, or four cases in one for $9, which saves $3; and in 27 cases, whereby there is a saving of $9.

Special arrangements have been made with the various Expresses, the nine-dollar cases of the Triesemar, and the larger sizes, will be forwarded by Dr. Barrow, carriage paid, immediately on receiving a remittance, to any part of the world, securely packed, and addressed according to the instructions of the writer thus securing to the public genuine European preparations, and effectually protecting them from spurious and pernicious imitations. The three-dollar cases sent as usual, but not free of carriage.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY, being strong, durable, and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect Sewing Machine kept employed affords a clear profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire reliability of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING, of a frail and delicate construction, are recommended by other manufacturers. Such machines are made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skillful hands than when sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are Singer's. The speed of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machines, of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines, of our own make, or for operative machines, of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted, to sell our machines. ☞

N. B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co's Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis. I. M. SINGER & CO.

Thrice-Weekly Kennebec Journal for 1857.

DURING the approaching session of the Legislature, the undersigned will continue the publication of the Thrice-weekly Journal, being the XIIIth Volume of the same.

As is well known, the chief purpose of this paper is to afford the public of Maine a faithful account of the deliberations and actions of its Legislature. With the reports of the Legislative doings, we intend also to publish the proceedings of Congress, as they are given in the best reports from Washington.

As the renewal of all the Bank Charters in the State will come before the Legislature this Winter, the debates and proceedings will be of peculiar interest to all who are interested in Bank property.

The numerous lines of railroad which now traverse the State in all directions, will enable a very large proportion of our subscribers to receive their papers a few hours after their publication. This fact renders a subscription to the Thrice-Weekly more desirable and satisfactory than in former years.

The Thrice-Weekly Journal will be published on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, mornings.—The price will be

Single Copy—One Dollar for the Session,

As usual, payable in advance. Any person forwarding us $8 shall be entitled to the ninth copy for his trouble. To any one who will send us $18 we will send two copies extra for his trouble.—Whoever shall send us $24 shall be entitled to three copies extra, and in like ratio for a larger amount.

☞ It is desirable that the names of subscribers accompanied with the money, may be forwarded at or before the commencement of the session.—Money remitted by mail at our risk.

ALL HAIL!!

Something for the Million!!!

PROF. WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE!

WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF ALL, OLD and YOUNG, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids, and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair, will preserve its color and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

Watertown, Mass., May 1, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Allow me to attest the virtues and magic powers of your Hair Restorative. Three months since, being exceedingly gray, I purchased and soon commenced to use two bottles; and it soon began to tell, in restoring the silver locks to their native color, and the hair, which was before dry and harsh, and falling off, now became soft and glossy; and it ceased falling; the dandruff disappeared, and the scalp lost all those disagreeable itching, so annoying before, and now I not only look but feel young again. Respectfully, yours, &c.
CHAS. WHITNEY.

New York, Oct. 2, 1855.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: After reading the advertisement in one of the New York journals, of your celebrated Hair Restorative, I procured a half-pint bottle, and was so much pleased with it that I continued for two months, and am satisfied it is decidedly the best preparation before the public. It at once removed all the dandruff and unpleasant itching from the scalp, and has restored my hair naturally, and, I have no doubt, permanently.

You have permission to refer to me, all who entertain any doubt of its performing all that is claimed for it.
MISS PEEKS, 322 Greenwich St.

I have used Professor O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects. I restored my hair where it had fallen off; it cleans the head, and renders the hair soft and smooth—much more than oil.
MARY A. ATKINSON,
Louisville, Nov. 1, 1855.

State of Illinois, Carlisle, June 27, '55.

I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his "Restorative" it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.
SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

[From the Washington Star.]

Among the many preparations now in use for the restoring, preserving and beautifying the hair, there are none that we can recommend with more confidence than Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, now in general use throughout the States. This preparation possesses the most invigorating qualities, and never fails in producing the most happy results when applied according to directions. We refer our readers to the advertisement for a few of the innumerable certificates which have been sent by parties who have been benefited by it, and who feel happy in giving testimony to its wonderful effects produced on them.

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1853, by J. Russell Spalding, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.

J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S

ROSE MARY

This great and popular preparation is decidedly one of the nicest and best articles in the world for the HAIR!

It imparts a richness and brilliancy, cleans, invigorates, embellishes; removes dandruff, relieves headache, and has probably been used for restoring, and preventing the falling off of the hair with as much success as any article ever known. It has stood the test of time and use, and all can rely upon it.

ANTAGONISTIC To Prejudice and Empiricism!

OLD DR. CULVERWELL'S

Radical Regenerator,

FOR SEMINAL WEAKNESS

In all its forms, as Nocturnal and Diurnal Emissions, Nervous Irritability, Premature Decay, Loss of Virility, Impotency, and all diseases arising from early indiscretion.

This excellent Remedy, discovered by the world renowned DR. CULVERWELL, in London, the most successful practitioner in his line for the last 30 years, is now for the first time offered to the afflicted in the fullest confidence of its extraordinary virtues. Its salutary effect is almost instantly felt, and it will doubtless at once supersede all other means resorted to, medical, surgical or otherwise, to arrest and to cure this awful disease. A single trial will convince the most sceptical, that a safe and perfect cure may now be had at the expense of a few dollars, which up to this date could not be procured for all the gold of the world. The heavy expenses incurred in bringing this article before the public could not be risked, were its superiority over every means hitherto employed for the same purpose not a sure guarantee that its employment by one person would, through recommendation, result in an eventual sale to many.

DR. CULVERWELL's admirable and entirely novel plan of treating these diseases is, in the interest of humanity, recommended to physicians throughout the land, to whom every facility will be afforded for testing its wonderful efficacy in their private practice.

Full and plain directions for all the different varieties of the complaint accompany Dr. Culverwell's REGENERATOR-REMEDY, so as to enable every one to treat himself or herself successfully. Price $2, on the receipt of which it will be forwarded by mail, free of postage, to any part of the country. Address, Messrs. BRIDGMAN & CO., Druggists and Apothecaries, 158 Grand-St., New York, Sole Agents for the United States and Canada. Nov. 19. d&wly

AYER'S Cathartic Pills

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.
Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.
Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.
GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.
JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, the public may rely on having them pure and genuine, as they are put up carefully, and bear our name and label, "TREMONT MILLS, E. E. DYER & CO." To give consumers some idea of our sales, we annex the following scale of prices, viz:

5lb. Souchong Tea,	1,50	5lb. Mocha Coffee,	[illegible]
5lb. Oolong Tea,	1,75	5lb. Java Coffee,	[illegible]
5lb. Y. Hyson Tea,	2,25	5lb. good Coffee,	[illegible]

☞ The Spices are put up in ¼ and ½ lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of consumers and dealers to our genuine Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lbs. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of Dandelion and Coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root. This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the genuine article. The proportion used is about one half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be used with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. Boston, Aug. 26, 1856

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY Of the Age.

Dr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,
From the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it, and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people, cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in Diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults one table spoonful per day—Children over ten years dessert spoonful—Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.
